

CRITICAL STAGE

Has Been Reached In Panama Canal Affairs.

It Is Thought That Colombia Has Been Told She Must Take More Interest or the Other Route Will Be Chosen.

London, Jan. 3.—A New York cablegram to the Manchester Guardian today states that the Panama canal negotiations are in a critical stage. The dispatch says:

"I learn that Secretary Hay is inclined to issue something like an ultimatum by stating the final terms, and give Colombia ten days to answer it."

Washington, Jan. 3.—It is believed that the state department is preparing to take decisive action in the Panama canal negotiations. Last night Secretary Hay sent to the Colombian legation and requested Dr. Herran to meet him at the former's office at 9:30 this morning. No statement of the result of that meeting has been given out but it is believed that Colombia has been told that she must immediately exhibit more interest in the matter of the negotiations or this route will be dropped and a recommendation made that Nicaragua and Costa Rica be again approached.

DICK

Gets Out of the Way But Is a Receptive Candidate.

Columbus, O., Jan. 3.—Congressman Charles F. Dick of Akron, who has been expected to contest with Myron Herrick of Cleveland for the Republican nomination for Governor, issued a statement today at his home at Akron, withdrawing from the active contest. He states that if universal sentiment of his party had been for him he would have entered the field, but that he finds that this is not the case. The tenor of the statement, however, indicated that General Dick will remain a receptive candidate ready to take the nomination should Herrick's success become impossible.

Grand Trunk Wreck.

St. Catharines, Ont., Jan. 3.—The Chicago east bound flyer on the Grand Trunk collided with an engine near Merriton tunnel this morning. Engineer Desautel was killed and two other trainmen were seriously injured. Nine of the passengers were hurt.

FOUR BUILDINGS FELL

Engulfed in Cave-in of Abandoned Coal Mine—Invalids Removed When Disturbance Was First Noticed—Soil Cracks to River.

Scranton, Pa., Jan. 3.—Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Delaware and Hudson company beneath the very heart of the town of Olyphant, caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings, covering an aggregate ground space of 8000 square feet.

The settling was gradual, and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered.

A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded depression in a vein in making their way out by a circuitous route and had to swim across. No one was injured.

In a half hour, O'Brien's three-story hotel; Mrs. Ann Evans' double store building and a one-story barber shop were ground to debris in the yawning pit, with the uppermost part of the mound forty feet below the surface.

The hotel, which plunged first into the opening, entirely disappeared.

A few houses are projecting over the edge of the pit. The vein that caved in is 115 feet below the surface.

The settling started in the street just in front of the hotel property. The brick pavement was seen to be working and the telegraph poles and trees along the curb were noticed to be wobbling. The cause was apparent and the alarm was spread. Two sick guests were removed from the hotel,

Twenty minutes after the disturbance was first noticed the opening had widened until it reached across the street and half way beneath the hotel. Then with a crash the building pitched forward, turned over and landed on its roof in the bottom of the abyss.

An immense amount of earth from the edge of the hotel went down with it and a moment later the adjoining double dwelling of Mrs. Evans fell over the edge and was demolished on the ruins of the hotel. The Ackerly store building and the Evans barber shop property slid into the chasm about the same time and piled themselves broken and twisted on the debris. The property damage is estimated at $30,000.

The workings which caved were in the uppermost part of the worked out veins. The timbers, it is explained by the company officials supported a thin roof of rock, which in turn supported strata of quicksand and gravel extending to the surface. The timbers rotted, the roof gave way and the quicksand sifted through carrying the gravel with it.

The water mains broke and a torrent of water poured through the aperture and down a 45-foot plain which has its heading just at the point where the roof broke through. The surface ceased to crack in fact from the river bank. Had it reached the river the mine would have been drowned.

BOUND

Watchman Blew Safe and Got Away With $4,800.

Galesburg, Ill., Jan. 3.—Five men entered the First National bank at Abingden, at one o'clock this morning, bound and gagged the night watchman and blew open the vault, securing $4,800. The robbers exploded three light charges of dynamite in breaking into vault. The watchman was not discovered until six o'clock.

KING GEORGE

Ruler of Saxony is Slowly Sinking and His Death is Believed to Be Near.

London, Jan. 3.—King George of Saxony, it is announced this morning, is slowly sinking. His fever is increasing, pulse weakening and emphysema has occurred between the heart and lungs, which greatly aggravates his condition. Milk is about the only nourishment he can take.

The royal physicians believe the moment is approaching when the Crown Princess Louise, whose elopement with the French Tutor, M. Girron, brought on the king's serious illness, will become queen.

FOUR WIVES

Charged to One Lone Jersey Man and There May be a Few Others About Too.

New York, Jan. 3.—"Thomas Bruce is a professional bridegroom." That is the charge made by Mrs. Mollie Hannan Bruce, the third wife of the man now fighting extradition in Baltimore. Mrs. Hannan and her daughter, Mollie, who caused his arrest, were found last night in a small apartment on East Seventy-sixth street. The mother corroborated the daughter's story. The latter said:

"I married Bruce in Newark, N. J., six years ago. I am an artist. He represented himself as a man of wealth with much property in Virginia. He is a cousin of former Senator Bruce of Maryland. He was absent months at a time, on business, I presumed. My suspicions were aroused."

"I found his first wife, Mrs. Louise Howard, whom he said died in an insane asylum in Richmond, alive and well. His second wife is Pearl Arnold, an actress, known on the stage as Ruth Deshon. His fourth, I believe is Annie Christian, 940 Penn avenue, Pittsburg. How many more he has we are trying to find out."

"Among his effects are hundreds of letters and scores of photographs from women who call him husband. I wrote to this Pittsburg woman, telling her what I had discovered, and got a curt reply which thanked me kindly. The 'kindly' was heavily underscored. Bruce took advantage of the Jersey law which outlaws bigamy if unprosecuted for two years."

TAFT

Will Remain in Philippines One Year at Least.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Justice Shiras of the United States Supreme court has been persuaded to defer his retirement for a year in order to allow Gov.

WILLIAM H. TAFT.

Taft, who is to be his successor, to remain 12 months longer at the helm in the Philippines. This announcement was made today by a business man of Manila who had a conference with Secretary Root yesterday. "If Gov. Taft should leave the Philippines now," said this gentleman, "the progress of the Islands would be set back five years."

SHE SPOKE

FOR FIRST TIME JUST BEFORE SHE DIED.

Strange Story Comes Up From Tennessee—Voice Long Silenced Was Set Free.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 3.—From Bonnie Cotton Mills, Madison county, comes a strange story. Clara Ware, a 19 year old girl, who had never been known to utter a sound, found power of speech and then died.

For some time Miss Ware had been suffering from a lingering illness. She bore her sufferings with the characteristic patience of those thus afflicted. She was dying and the family knew it. One of her near relatives was seated in the room watching while the rest sat in an adjoining room. While the parents grieved, from the room where she lay came a human voice.

Springing to the bed where the girl lay the watchers found that it was Clara who had spoken. She spoke to those gathered in awe about her. She told them all goodbye, saying that she had longed and prayed to be able to speak to them before she died.

"The good God has answered my prayer," she said, "and I am going to a better and happier land, my home beyond," and as she spoke the soul that had found escape in that one note fled.

Those who witnessed this and heard the dumb girl speak are unable to explain it. The occurrence has been talked of in Bemis and everywhere in the vicinity. The fact that the girl spoke while on her deathbed and every incident connected with it, has spiritualistic views, and those who are superstitious say it was some supernatural power that loosed the vocal chords and freed the voice so long imprisoned.

TOPSY

Man Killing Elephant Will Hang at Noon on Sunday.

New York, Jan. 3.—Topsy, the big elephant, whose man killing record exceeds that of any other elephant in captivity, will be executed tomorrow at noon. Topsy got loose at Coney Island yesterday and held five hundred men at bay for five hours. Thompson & Dundy, her owners, have tried to give her away without success and finally decided on execution. She will be hanged.

PETITION

To Enjoin a Morrow County Man From Praying in the U. B. Church at Andrews.

Mt. Gilead, O., Jan. 3.—A rather unusual petition has been filed in the court of common pleas of Morrow county. The suit, as filed by Attorney L. K. Powell, asks that Andrew J. Tennant be enjoined from attending public worship and praying at the United Brethren Church of Andrews, a hamlet east of Mt. Gilead.

Tennant is a fervid worshipper and his methods it is claimed, are such as to create disturbances.

JEWELER

Who Flew the Coop is Anxious To Know What Charges Have Been Filed Against Him.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 3.—W. S. Tussing, the missing jeweler, has advised one of his closest friends of his whereabouts. He has been keeping himself informed of events in connection with his case through the newspapers. It is said that Tussing will remain in seclusion until he knows if any criminal charges are to be preferred against him. If not, he says, he will return to Columbus and "face the music."

Steps may be taken by Attorney E. M. Taylor to issue a warrant against Tussing on a felony charge, and have the missing man positively located. If such action is taken it will be upon the instigation of the Miller Jewelry and the Gebhart Brothers Company, of Cincinnati, who are losers of nearly $2,500 by the failure.

Attorney Taylor said: "I am not exactly satisfied of the criminality of Tussing's action, but I am inclined to think that he can be held on either a charge of larceny or embezzlement. Tussing obtained diamonds valued at $1,700 from the Miller company and stones valued at $625 from the Gebhart Brothers company. In both cases the jewels were sent on consignment, and the statement, expressly provided that the property did not leave these firms."

Four More Dead.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 3.—Norfolk's death list up today from lockjaw resulting from accidental Christmas toy pistol wounds of the hand numbers ten victims. Since yesterday's report the victims are: Geo. White, 13; Louis Calvert, 12; Jesse C. Eaton, 9, and Lynn Walker, colored, 25. A good many more are now ill with the same disease and as many more deaths as those already reported may occur in the next 48 hours.

Woman's Suicide.

Waynesville, O., Jan. 3.—Two trap-pers yesterday evening near the village of Harveyburg, found a woman lying outstretched on the snow dead, with a bullet hole through her breast and another through the head. Later it proved to be the young wife of Mayor Seroczy. Upon the mayor's return she had gone and left a note saying that she was gone for good. Domestic infidelity was the cause of the suicide.

Madrid, Jan. 3.—A telegram received from Fez says the pretender to the Moroccan throne has entered the capital and that he met a favorable reception.

WHERE'S STEELE

Relatives, Friends and Attorneys are Getting Anxious

It Is Said That the Possibility of Wearing Prison Stripes Has Completely Unnerved the Convicted Columbus Lawyer.

Columbus, O., Jan. 3.—(Bulletin)—Attorney Thomas E. Ewing Steele recently convicted on the charge of conspiracy with Mrs. Anna T. Miller, is still missing today. His friends do not know where he is. He is under bond of $10,000 for appearance January 9. It is now feared that he is dead or either in hiding and out of his mind.

Columbus, O., Jan. 3.—In spite of the widely published rumors that Thomas E. Steele had fled from this city, that individual has sent no word to his friends here to reassure them that he did not go away to evade the minions of the law.

Relatives, friends and attorneys of Steele have been anxiously awaiting some tidings from him.

Just what has become of the principal defendant in the famous Miller Steele case is not known even to his closest advisers. His absence is worrying them, and their denials that he has disappeared are not as vehement as they were when the rumor first became public.

Steele left the city the day after Christmas, but his friends say he was here all day Saturday. He left a note to his brother, Charles, saying that he was going to Parkersburg. He left notes to two close friends in which he told of entirely different plans.

Thomas Steele was found guilty in the United States court two weeks ago, jointly with Mrs. Anna Miller, of having conspired to use the mails to defraud. The detailed charges were that Steele collected money from men whom Mrs. Miller named, on the promise that the payment would keep their names out of the Miller divorce case. He was tried before Judge Thompson in the United States court, found guilty, and bond for his appearance was fixed at $2,000. Mrs. Miller's bond was placed at $1,000. The defendants at once filed a motion for a new trial, and the motions are to be heard on January 9. If they are overruled Judge Thompson has the power to send Steele and Mrs. Miller to the penitentiary at once, or he can suspend execution of sentence pending appeal to the higher court.

Since the verdict of guilty was returned every effort has been made by Steele's friends to have Judge Thompson suspend execution of a penitentiary sentence in the event that the motion for a new trial is overruled, but they did not receive encouragement.

It is hardly expected that the motion will be granted, and it has been Judge Thompson's practice to order defendants into prison during the pendency of appeals.

In view of this fact it is said that Steele some days prior to his disappearance told his friends that he was fast becoming a nervous wreck. The excuse offered by his friends for his absence is that he became so worried that he sought seclusion out of the city, and that as soon as he recovers his mental equilibrium he will return to Columbus.

His relatives and friends think he is at Mt. Clemens, Mich., French Lick, Ind., or some other health resort.

A mysterious woman is deeply interested in Steele's absence. She has been visiting his office regularly. It is said that the missing lawyer paid her regular attention before he became involved in this scandal. He is said to have advised her that he contemplated leaving the city for good.

Steele's late business associates and his friends have been making every effort to get into communication with him. They have been unsuccessful, and they acknowledge that his absence and silence are not encouraging. Inasmuch as he has not until Friday of next week to return they hope to hear from him then.

It is said at the United States court that if Steele went to a foreign country he could not be forcibly brought back to the United States, as the charges against him do not constitute an extraditable offense.

REGISTERED MAIL STOLEN.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 3.—Some time between New Year's at midnight and Friday noon, a sack of registered mail was stolen between the Pearl street sub-station and the main postoffice. While the amount of the theft is not known it will reach several thousand dollars.

REMOVED FROM DUTY.

New York, Jan. 3.—Capt. George Terrill of the steamship Sulda of the Red D line has been removed from duty on the charges of having violated the neutrality laws and with alleged responsibility of having given the German gunboat information which led to the capture of the Venezuelan gunboat Miranda on December 20 in Maracaibo harbor. Investigation of the charges may lead to strained relations between this country and Venezuela. Senor E. Gonzales Esteres, Venezuelan consul general, says that he will apprise his government of the alleged action of Capt. Terrill, which he says is a serious matter.

PACIFIC CABLE

Will Extend as Far as Manila by Independence Day—Hawaiian Cable Open for Commercial Business January 5.

New York, Jan. 3.—Clarence Mackay, president; George J. Ward, vice president and general manager, and the other officials of the Commercial Pacific Cable company are greatly pleased at the completion of the company's cable between San Francisco and Hawaii, a work to which they have devoted much energy and time during the last few months. They do not propose to stop at Hawaii, however, and now say that by July 4 they expect the cable will have been completed to Manila. Speaking of the project Mr. Ward said: "The Commercial Pacific Cable company's cable to Hawaii was connected through to San Francisco at 8:48 p. m. January 1 (Honolulu time). The cable will open for business on Monday morning January 5. The widespread interest created by bringing the Hawaiian islands into electric touch with the Pacific coast is evidenced by congratulatory cablegrams received. It is particularly satisfactory to us to have the cable completed on the first of the new year, because it fulfills our promise to Congress. Rapid progress is being made in the manufacture of sections to be laid between Honolulu and Manila and over 3,500 miles of this cable has already been manufactured. I fully expect message will be exchanged with Manila by the 4th of July next. The laying of the remaining sections will commence from Manila the first week in May next."

EARLY STATE CONVENTION.

There is talk in Democratic circles of an early state convention this year. The consensus of opinion is that the month of June is as late as the convention should be held. It is certain that the blunder of holding the convention on the eve of election will not be repeated. Since a Legislature is to be elected more time will be required for organization than last year, but under no circumstances would last year's late program be acceptable to the majority of Democrats. The present hope free from any attempt at dictation and with enough candidates for every place of the Democracy is in a convention on the ticket to insure the rivalry that develops strength and the choice that represents the honest sentiment of a majority of delegates.

HOW BALLOONS ARE MADE.

An interesting story of the construction of Great Airships.

Mr. Chauncey McGovern in Pearson's gives a detailed account of the construction of those wonderful ships which sail through the air. He says:

"The silk used in balloons is of various grades, but the best balloons, such as are used by the war department and the United States weather bureau, are made of the coarse silk which the European peasants obtain from the wild cocoons. Ordinary balloons are made of cotton only, but the most expensive kind. It is that known in commerce as 'long fiber south sea island cotton.'

"And when a balloon is to be made the raw silk or cotton is run through a machine, whose construction is secret, where it receives from thirteen to twenty-one different coats of varnish. This is the only place in the world where balloons are varnished by machinery. Hand labor is employed elsewhere, and a double coating of varnish is about the limit. Machine varnishing has this great advantage in that none of the coats is thick enough to be detected by the sharpest eyes. It takes 30,000 coats to make a single inch in thickness.

"After the rolls of silk and cotton have been varnished enough they are hung up on lines to dry. Next the rolls are cut into segments and sewed together by the women of the neighborhood. A final varnishing of the seams only, and the balloon is ready for shipment.

"It does not take long to make a big balloon. Not so long ago Mr. Myers received a telegraphic order for twenty large balloons for the United States government signal service. The whole batch of them was finished within the phenomenally short time of three days. It is interesting to compare this with that required to build a single balloon for Andre. And his balloon was varnished only three times!

"And, besides these twenty balloons, Mr. Myers has made hundreds of others for use by the United States government in the war department and in the department of agriculture."

The Sun Was Right.

When President Roosevelt was on a turkey hunt in the neighborhood of Mill Run battlefield, he and a Mr. Hayden, with a guide, left the turkey run and plunged into a stretch of woodland. After they had walked some miles Mr. Hayden said to the guide, "You've lost your way." "Not a bit of it," was the reply. "Oh, yes, you have. The sun is in the southwest at this time of day, and we should be going due east." Mr. Roosevelt said: "I always follow a man who steers in the woods by the sun or stars. I'll follow your leadership, Mr. Hayden." He did so and reached his destination in a bee line, to the guides' deep discomfiture.

Only a Saltcellar!

A saltcellar of the spacious times of great Elizabeth has been sold at auction in London for the amazing sum of $3,000. Only a saltcellar! And there is no authentic proof that the lionhearted ruler of the England of Shakespeare and of Burleigh and the other men of high renown who lived in the latter part of the marvelous sixteenth century ever took salt from this small dish. If such a bit of tableware sells for $3,000, what will a fair price be for a genuine Elizabethan platter big enough to contain a larder of true British roast beef?

HANNA'S BOSS REIGN

Causing Consternation In Republican Circles Never Before Known

The Party May Have to Depart From Established Rules and Allow the Delegates Some Voice in the Next State Convention.

Columbus, O., Jan. 3.—There is grave danger that the Republicans of Ohio may be obliged to depart from all precedents of Boss Hanna's reign and nominate their candidates for next fall's campaign in state convention. This will be such a painful departure from established rules that it is likely to be followed by the most serious consequences to the party organization. Since Mr. Hanna bought off John Sherman's southern delegates in the national convention of 1896, the Republican state conventions of Ohio have had no more to do with the real business of nominating state tickets than the Ohio society of New York—not so much, indeed, for the Ohio Society of New York contains some Republican millionaires whose influence is more potent in Ohio politics than the honest preferences of delegates assembled in Republican state conventions. During all these years Hanna has exercised the functions of conventions and legislatures, while his machine, through the co-operation of Dick and Malloy, has been supreme in the great majority of counties, enabling him to dictate nominations from governor down to coroner.

It is, therefore, with something akin to speechless consternation that the Hanna people now view the present situation. It is an open secret that the Cleveland arbitration board, of which the boss is chairman, secretary, treasurer and "the whole thing," has failed to bring about an understanding between Dick and Herrick. Mr. Hanna undertook to deliver more goods than he could lay hands on when he summoned the Republican factionalists to his private office in Cleveland on the supposition that, as heretofore had been the case, he would find no difficulty in having his instructions carried out to the letter. There is no probability that either Dick or Herrick will withdraw, and least of all any probability that either one will withdraw in favor of the other. Their rivalry will open the way for numerous other candidates, each hoping to receive the benefit of any deadlock that may ensue in the convention as between the two leading candidates. For this reason the convention may afford the unparalleled

UNION MAN

Opposed to Dragging Organized Labor Into Politics—Does Not Approve a Labor Ticket.

Editor Advocate:

I deem it my duty as an organized labor man in good standing in this city to warn all true union men of whatever affiliation of the dastardly attempt to prostitute the labor unions by dragging them into politics at the municipal election the coming spring. Certain death would be the result to unionism in Newark. Supposed union men who to my certain knowledge have not worked at their trades for years, but have posed as labor's champions, and at present are holding the highest offices within the gift of organized labor, who have been employed at many past elections by both political parties under the impression that they could manipulate and deliver the labor vote to their political bosses are, (having been boosted and probably "retained" by certain political tricksters) now busily engaged in trying to get the different labor unions to think that the time has come (when in order to be "recognized") to put a full "organized" labor ticket in the field.

Now, brothers, there is a vast difference between a labor ticket and an organized labor ticket, viz: A labor ticket is where, regardless of politics, the laborers call a public meeting and if an independent ticket is thought best it is thus made. But as these tricksters well know an "organized" labor ticket is where the unions do as some have, I am informed, already done, (through ignorance of their constitutions) adopted resolutions and instructed delegates to vote according to their own will, instead of in accord with the familiar and time-honored precepts of bossism.

The suspicion prevails in certain quarters that Mr. Hanna is playing a double game in this business, but it is not borne out by the apparent facts. On the contrary, it appears that the Senator is in an extremely embarrassing, not to say dangerous, position. It is hinted, however, that he purposes to "throw" Colonel Herrick at the last moment, after giving him an opportunity to show his running qualities. Hanna can then assure the Cleveland candidate that he kept his hands off, that it was an open fight, and a fair field and that the colonel failed simply because he couldn't gather the votes. In the meantime Dick will capture the prize with Hanna's surreptitious aid, and will also assure Herrick with a bland smile that Hanna was entirely irresponsible for the event. This is what Colonel Herrick's friends now fear most. The fact is that neither side has enough sincere love for Hanna to trust him very far.

The New Year promises to begin life with a declaration of independence on the part of some of the most prominent representatives of the Republican press in Ohio. The editorial functionaries of the G. O. P. are fretting under the bit and the lash. For some time such well-known Republican organs as the Toledo Blade, Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, Sandusky Register, Mansfield News, Marion Star, Marietta Register and others that might be named have been showing a disposition to "call down" Mr. Hanna and to otherwise behave as if the average Republican had a right to own his own soul. The Republican weekly press has to a certain extent taken up the same refrain, which promises soon to break out in a general chorus. The anti-Hanna Republicans are delighted with this unexpected display of independence and say that it indicates an early disintegration of the forces of the boss. In this they are certainly right, if the attitude of the leading Republican newspapers is as significant as it is unprecedented.

gates to that effect and it has been carried so far that a committee has been appointed and a time (January 12) as I understand has been set for the purpose of endorsing the scheme. At the national convention of the American Federation of Labor held at New Orleans in November last it attempted to defeat their President, Gompers, by just such political tricksters who were bribed by political "capital" to gain control and put a Presidential Labor ticket in the field in 1904.

But the schemers were nipped in the bud and President Gompers was re-elected. If the time has come for organized labor to be led out of Egypt to the ("political") promised land, give us at least a Moses with clean hands.

A REMARKABLE SHOT.

Fired in the Dark, It Injured Three Men Half a Mile Away.

"One of the best and most remarkable shots made during the war with Spain," said a gentleman who made an effort to get into the thick of the fight, "was, in my judgment, made at Miami, and the man who fired the shot was a Louisiana boy and a member of my company. He was doing duty as a provost guard at the time. It was late at night when the soldiers were roused by the quick, clear crack of a Krug-Jorgensen on the outskirts of the camp. No particular attention was paid to the matter at first, as only one shot was fired. But with a couple of officers we went out to where the guard was stationed in order to find out just why it was that he had fired at that time of night. He explained that he had seen a man slipping through the bushes some distance away and had called on him to halt. He failed to obey the command, and the guard blazed away at him, more to frighten him into a stop than anything else. Of course, the fellow never halted. He was probably too badly frightened to stop at that time.

"While we were talking to the guard we heard a fearful noise at least half a mile from the guard's station, and we made a break for the place to see what the matter was. We heard several people screaming as if in great agony. Down the road we went at full speed, and in a short while we came upon a little cabin which stood on the roadside. The noise was in this cabin, and I never heard such groaning and wailing in my life. We found three men in the house. They were in great agony, and we asked them what was the matter. 'We have been shot,' they said, and sure enough they had been shot.

"One was shot in the right arm, another in the back and the third in the hip. They had all been wounded by the same bullet. The man who was wounded in the arm was lying on his right side. The ball passed through his arm. Next to him one of his companions was sprawling out on his back, and the bullet split the hide on this part of his anatomy as smoothly as a knife. Then it passed through the fleshy part of the third man's hip and sped on.

"We could not find the ball. It had passed through the side of the house, wounded the three men in the way indicated, bored through the wall on the opposite side and kept on going. Now, that cabin was fully half a mile from the point where the guard was stationed, and yet the shot he fired had wrought all the havoc we found."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Discovery of Purple.

A dog belonging to Hercules Tyrinus was one day walking along the seashore when he found and ate a murex, a species of shellfish. Returning to his master, the latter noticed that the dog's lips were tinged with color, and in this manner Tyrian purple was discovered. The color was used in the robes of emperors and nobles, and the expression "born to the purple" meant that the person was of high birth. It is strange to think that the favorite color of royalty can be traced to the curiosity or hunger of the dog of Tyre.

The Spirit Was Willing.

"See here," cried the tailor as Slopay, having donned his new suit, started out of the store; "you're forgetting something."

"Indeed?" said Slopay. "What's that?"
"You must remember our understanding. I made this suit for you only because you said you wanted to pay cash for it."

"And I still want to, but I'm sorry to say I can't."—Philadelphia Press.

A Matter of Business.

"I cannot understand, sir, why you permit your daughter to sue me for breach of promise. You remember that you were bitterly opposed to our engagement because I wasn't good enough for her and would disgrace the family."
"Young man, that was sentiment; this is business."

His Classification.

Ingomar Buskin—There's a dispute about my acting. Some critics put it in the first rank, others in the second. Now, how would you designate it?
Horatio Jones—? Oh, I'd simply designate it as rank.—New York Times.

GREAT NILE RESERVOIR.

Advantages to Be Derived From the Assuan Dam.

What would have been one of the wonders of the world a century ago was completed the other day when the great dam of the Nile at Assuan was formally opened, says the New York Evening Post. It is not only one of the greatest engineering feats of modern times, but bids fair to be one of the most beneficent public works undertaken by any modern government. Completed a year before the contract time, the actual construction of this great reservoir has taken but little more than four years. It makes navigation to Wady Halfa possible throughout the year by means of a canal around the cataract. But its main object is to prevent loss of the crops and a consequent famine by storing sufficient water to supply the irrigation canals even when the Nile flood fails to bring down its rich silt to the tillers of the soil.

More than that, the reservoir will make two crops a year possible, one in winter and one in summer, and this system of double crops is counted on to make Egypt in time one of the richest countries of the world in proportion to its area and population. No work that England has done for the natives in any of its foreign possessions surpasses its achievements in Egypt. The excellence of its administration in the Nile country is indeed the one justification of its failure to keep its solemn pledge to evacuate the country.

The dam is straight from end to end, and its length is about a mile and a quarter. Its width at the top is about 25 feet and at the deepest part 82 feet. The height from the lowest part of the foundation to the top is 131 feet. The interior masonry is rubble granite in four to one cement mortar. The interior casing is of square rock faced granite in two to four cement mortar. The lining of the sluices is heavy granite ashlar or cast iron. The sluices are closed by steel gates, of which the greater number will work on free rollers suspended in frames.

CITY OF PUERTO CABELLO.

Its Forts Offer Poor Resistance to Bombardment From Sea.

The entrance to the inside harbor at Puerto Cabello, in Venezuela, is through a narrow channel not more than a few hundred feet wide, says the New York Times. To the left of this channel as one enters the harbor, situated on a low sand spit, is the fortress which was bombarded by the German and British cruisers. It is an old fashioned structure, which was rebuilt in the eighteenth century. Its sides are comparatively low and would offer only poor resistance to modern shells. It is not probable that the Venezuelan government had any modern cannon there.

The custom house at Puerto Cabello is situated on the right, or mainland, side of the channel. It is a long two story brick building and contains, besides executive offices, large warehouses. Steamships discharging at Puerto Cabello tie up immediately in front of the custom house. The town itself is flat and stretches from the water front inland to the base of the hills, a distance of two or three miles. The outside harbor at Puerto Cabello is hardly more than a large bay, offering comparatively little protection to shipping. The inside harbor is very secure and quite commodious.

Puerto Cabello as a Venezuelan port is second in importance to La Guayra. The trade of several interior provinces centers there, and Puerto Cabello is the port of Valencia, an important town in the state of Carabobo. A railroad, in which British capital is largely interested, connects Puerto Cabello and Valencia.

ENGINEER TOOTS A HYMN.

Nightly Turns His Big Locomotive Into a Steam Calico.

Men have mastered the clarinet and tortured the trombone, fretted the flute and murdered the French horn, but a Richmond man can play an air on the whistle of a locomotive, says the New York World.

As the 7-45 pulls out from the Southern depot one may hear every night the air, "There's a land fairer than day." With his hand on the throttle, as the engine swings into the darkness, the engineer plays with the skill of a trained musician the opening bar of the old song. It is his parting salute to his sweetheart.

New Stamped Envelopes.

Within a few months the postoffice department will have ready for delivery a new issue of stamped envelopes radically differing in form from the present envelopes, says a Washington special to the New York Tribune. Four styles are to be made to sell for 1, 2, 4 and 5 cents. At present the stamp on the stamped envelope is elliptical in shape. It is intended to make one of the new stamps rectangular, another will be round, still another will be elliptical, and the other will probably be square. The full details have not yet been settled, nor have the designs been submitted. It is determined, however, to have each of the new envelopes distinct in appearance from the others, so that there will be no confusion among the different styles and shapes.

Kaiser Wilhelm on Freedom.

From the report in the London Times of Emperor William's speech at Gortitz the following is an extract: Freedom for thought, freedom in the further development of religion and freedom for our scientific investigation—that is the freedom which I desire for the German people and would win for them, but not freedom to govern themselves as badly as they please.

PENNSYLVANIA LINES.

Under new schedule in effect Sunday, December 14, 1902, passenger trains will leave Newark as follows:

Miss Gannon, Sec'y Detroit Amateur Art Association, tells young women what to do to avoid pain and suffering caused by female troubles.

"I can conscientiously recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to those of my sisters suffering with female weakness and the troubles which so often befall women. I suffered for months with general weakness and felt so weary that I had hard work to keep up. I had shooting pains and was utterly miserable. In my distress I was advised to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it was a red letter day to me when I took the first dose; for at that time my restoration began. In six weeks I was a changed woman, perfectly well in every respect. I felt so elated and happy that I want all women who suffer to get well as I did."—Miss GILIA GANNON, 359 Jones St., Detroit, Corresponding Sec'y Mich. Amateur Art Association.—$5000 for the original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

It is clearly shown in this young lady's letter that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will surely cure the sufferings of women; and when one considers that Miss Gannon's letter is only one of hundreds which we have, the great virtue of Mrs. Pinkham's medicine must be admitted by all.

An Emperor's Strange Fancy.

Strange fancies have taken hold of some men regarding the manner in which their bodies were to be disposed of after death and the ceremonies to be observed at their funerals.

The great Emperor Charles V. had the curious idea of celebrating his own funeral. Shortly before his death he caused a tomb to be made in the chapel of the monastery of Estremadura, to which he had retired after his abdication, and on its completion he was carried to it as though dead. Placed in a coffin and accompanied by a procession, he was borne along, while chants were sung, prayers said and tears shed. After the solemn farce was over he was left alone in the chapel, where he remained a short time before rising out of the coffin.

A Harrowing Jest.

The man at our boarding house has the remains of a once prosperous pocket comb from which the teeth have long since fled.

"Why," we ask him, "do you carry that thing around with you—that worthless old comb?"

And he replies:

"Well, I can't part with it."—Baltimore News.

SNOW SLIDE

ALMOST BURIED SON OF MR. D. W. MATTICKS.

Piece of Ice Knocked Out One Tooth and the Little Boy Was Otherwise Hurt.

Raymond, the little son of Councilman, and Mrs. D. W. Matticks, met with a peculiar accident at his home on West Church street, on Friday afternoon. The little fellow had gone out to the barn to feed his pet rabbits, when a large quantity of snow and ice slipped off the roof of the barn, falling on him and nearly burying him. He was considerably injured by the ice striking him, sustaining severe bruises on the face, while one of his teeth was knocked out. However, his injuries are not of a serious nature.

Too Good Highlanders.

Some years ago a vote was taken among the men of a certain highland regiment (at that time not wearing the kilt) to find out how many would be in favor of wearing the highland costume.

In due time the sergeant major appeared before the commanding officer with the result of the voting.

C. O.—Well, sergeant major, how many are in favor of the kilt?

S. M.—Two men, sir.

C. O.—Only two. Well, I'm glad there are at least two good highlanders in the regiment. What are their names, sergeant major?

An All-Round Tonic

So many splendid cures have been made in purely nervous affections by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, people are apt to lose sight of the fact that they are a magnificent blood and general tonic. They give to every organ the power to work, to do its duty as it should—to the blood a richness in quantity and quality no other medicine can—appetite, digestion, strength—all are furnished by their tonic power. To the system at large they give a general feeling of vigorous, robust health.

SOUTH FIFTH ST.

Mrs. T. S. Weakley of No. 119 South Fifth street, Newark, Ohio, says:

"Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are all right. My digestion was weak—food did not digest and distressed after eating. This made me nervous and dull. I was told the Nerve Pills would cure this and they did. The digestion stomach and nerves are strong again and I am glad I got the medicine at Bricker's City Drug Store."

INFIRMARY

NEWARK MAN WRITES OF HIS VISIT THERE.

Inmates Express Sorrow at the Resignation of Mr. and Mrs. Larason.

Inmates Entertained.

(Communicated.)

I recently went out to the Licking County Infirmary to give a musical entertainment for the benefit of the inmates and while there I had the time and opportunity to look over the various buildings, and I am glad to say I found everything in first class shape. The infirmary directors, James Redman, Charles Howard and Stephen Vermillion, were there and the new superintendent and matron, Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Harter, and genial Amzi Larason and his estimable wife, all united in giving me the glad hand and bid me welcome. The next morning I asked permission to go through the institution alone, which was gladly granted, and to say I was agreeably surprised is but to mildly express it. I met troops of female inmates with scrub brushes, water and soap, scrubbing all the floors and wood work. The old ladies' department was neat, tidy and clean and quite a good taste was displayed in arranging their little keepsakes and ornaments. It was here I found Mrs. Larason, the matron, dust pan in hand, dusting the room, speaking kindly to all the inmates. The genuine sorrow expressed by each inmate because Mr. and Mrs. Larason had resigned was indeed wonderful. They are all sorry that Amzi and his wife are going. One old lady completely broke down in speaking about it, but the writer has been acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Harter from childhood and can unhesitatingly recommend them as kind hearted and good people, and when the time comes for them to leave the institution all will regret it.

Australia's Fierce Ants.

The biggest and fiercest ants in the world are to be found on the far northern plains of Australia. They build hills as big as houses and fight in the most ferocious fashion. A ghastly incident was reported recently by mail from Australia. A man named James Stanley was pinioned to the ground by a falling tree in northern Queensland. He was immediately attacked by bees and huge green ants. When rescued, his body was covered with them. He died in a few minutes after reaching the nearest hospital.

BLOOD WINE CURES RHEUMATISM AND KIDNEY DISEASES

Undoubtedly no class of people are more severely subjected to the weather than officers of the law. Probably no class of people suffer as a result of such harsh treatment any more than they with rheumatism. There is hardly a policeman, sheriff or marshal that has not had it—and badly, too. In a great many cities "Blood Wine" is recommended by the heads of the police departments, and officers are told to use it when subjected to long spells of inclement weather. Every officer who has ever taken "Blood Wine" for rheumatism speaks of his experience about as Mr. Espich, the city marshal of New Philadelphia, Ohio, does. He says:

"I take this opportunity of writing you regarding my experience with 'Blood Wine.' As my business keeps me out in all kinds of weather, I have been subjected to attacks of rheumatism. I have tried various well-known rheumatic remedies, but the results have never been satisfactory. But when I found 'Blood Wine,' I found a remedy that completely cured me, and did it in a remarkably short time. I can sincerely recommend 'Blood Wine' for rheumatic sufferers."

It was a case of aggravated rheumatism. It was not a new case, but an old stubborn case of long standing, one that broke out in intense fury with every wet spell. Mr. Espich had suffered so severely that he had lost faith in all medicines, and only under protest did he consent to try "Blood Wine." Rheumatism forms crusts of lime like deposits about the joints. Instead of the bones moving freely and painlessly in the smooth-tissue covered joints, they grate and bleed and gouge into one another because of their unnatural size and shape, and produce excruciating pain and suffering. This is the way Mr. Espich felt. He was in misery with every move. When he commenced taking "Blood Wine" it immediately worked on his blood. Slowly but surely it abstracted the acid and neutralized the blood; then it dissolved those crusts about his bones. When this was done it made new tissues to cover these bones; then through the blood it produced an oil to keep the joints freely lubricated and moistened. Consequently the pain soon left and Mr. Espich quickly became a well man. Now he has no sign of pain. He eats well, feels well, and is well. If it is any wonder that he wants to tell about it, and say a good word for "Blood Wine," the medicine which cured him, no one suffering with rheumatism or kidney disease should hesitate to take "Blood Wine." It will drive the disease entirely out of the system.

FREE BLOOD TEST. As rheumatism and kidney diseases are both diseases of the blood, the only accurate way to tell one's true condition is to examine the blood. You can have an expert bacteriologist analyze your blood free of charge, by sending your name to the Louis Drouin Co., Worcester, Mass., for full particulars.

"Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle.

GEO. F. BOWERS

Will Represent Newark Stockholders in a Trip to Gold Mine Property in the West.

A meeting of the Newark stockholders of the Six Eagles Mining company was held Friday night at Bowers & Bradley's undertaking establishment on South Third street, and considerable business of importance was transacted, the principal item being the selection of George F. Bowers as a representative of the Newark stockholders, to visit the company's gold mining properties in Okanogan county, Washington, where the Six Eagles mines are located.

Mr. Bowers will leave on his mission the first of next week, and expects to be gone about three weeks. When he returns he will make a report of the conditions prevailing about the mines.

A Purse and a Watch.

Sir Henry Irving possesses among his most valued treasures two articles to which peculiar interest attaches. One is a little purse made of green silk thread, with a silver band. It was found in the pocket of Edmund Kean on the death of the latter and did not contain a single coin. The other article is a silver timekeeper which formerly belonged to Edwin Forrest. The hands point to thirty minutes past 5, at which moment the great actor expired and the watch stopped.

Danger Thermometers.

A very curious medical invention has been patented in Paris. It is likely to be of great use. It is a small apparatus which, placed under the arm of a patient suffering from fever, rings a small bell directly the temperature reaches a dangerous height, thus summoning the doctor or nurse. The invention is simple and ingenious and in cases of intermittent fever should prove a great boon.

An Army of Brides.

M. Paul du Clailin, the African explorer, during the course of a lecture given at St. Petersburg related that during his sojourn in west Africa he had received 22,000 offers of marriage. One black king offered him 733 brides in a single day. He had explained that if he married one the other 732 would be jealous. The king quite agreed with him and invited him to marry all of them.

MARTHA'S OPPORTUNITY.

The first postage stamp ever issued by the United States government which bears the portrait of a woman has been placed on sale in the postoffices throughout the country. It is an eight-cent stamp and has the likeness of Martha Washington—Special Dispatch.

Pair woman's recognition is no more a thing to come. The recognition is forming, don't you hear. She's getting her foot in politics, in medicine, in law. And we are daily seeing sights our fathers never saw. But good old Martha Washington is still the pioneer. She's got her picture on a stamp; this is the news we hear. Yet in this age of progress who would be surprised at that? The man who says it's marvelous is talking through his hat. For when it comes to pictures it displays an awful taste. To put man's homely features on the other side the paste. When lovely woman's countenance might well be printed there. But one consideration should make Martha have a care. By getting on a postage stamp, why, don't you see that she will be as hated as George was when he backed the cherry tree?—S. W. Giblin in Baltimore American.

THE RAILWAYS

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 3.—This morning's Dispatch says: The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen of the B. & O. railroad are preparing a new scale, which will be presented shortly to the operating officials of the road at Baltimore. The contracts with these three organizations do not expire for some time, but it is believed that a conference will set aside the time expiration. Neither party to the agreement can change any of the provisions without 30 days' notice. The engineers, firemen and trainmen, it is learned, have no desire to enforce their demands by a threat of striking, for the reason that the B. & O. has, generally speaking, dealt fairly with them.

Made Chief Dispatcher.

Bucyrus, O., Jan. 3.—I. B. Chadwick, formerly of this city, has been promoted to the position of Chief Train Dispatcher of the Ohio Central lines, both eastern and western divisions, with headquarters at Columbus. J. A. Franey, also of Bucyrus, is made Assistant Chief Dispatcher. A year ago Mr. Chadwick was deposed and made a dispatcher both the Hocking Valley and Ohio Central Lines being put under one Chief Dispatcher.

Installation of Officers.

One of the most pleasant and impressive installations of officers took place on Monday evening, December 29, at the B. & O. L. E. Hall. Mrs. John May assisted by Grand Marshal Mrs. J. W. Huffman of Cambridge, O., in a beautiful and impressive manner installed the following officers:

President, Mrs. Frank Howard. Vice Pres., Mrs. Sadie Wilson. Treasurer, Mrs. James Connors. Secretary, Mrs. Robert McManus. Chaplain, Mrs. E. Wiles. Guide, Mrs. George Snooks. Sentinel, Mrs. Martin Connors. Insurance Sec., Mrs. Rose George. Musician, Mrs. John Gray.

The appointed officers were Mrs. Cornell, Mrs. P. Glancy, Mrs. N. Johns, Mrs. Glassmeier, Mrs. B. Reilly, Mrs. G. Abell.

After the installation Mrs. G. Howard presented Mrs. John May with a handsome past president pin, which was received with much pleasure; also some very pleasant remarks from the engineers present, which were kindly received by the ladies, after which supper was announced and all sat down to an elegant supper which was provided by the ladies. The rest of the evening was spent with music.

Receivership Terminates.

Zanesville, O., Jan. 3.—The receivership of the Bellaire, Zanesville and Cincinnati railroad was terminated by Judge Hollingsworth in the United States court at St. Clairsville Friday and the receiver was given until the 1st of March to file his final report.

The road will henceforth be known as the Ohio River and Western.

COUNT DE OVIES

Count Segundo de Ovies was a Carlist exile. The signature of his uncle, Louis De Ovies, is found with that of John Quincy Adams ceding Florida to the United States in a treaty with Spain. The Count is forty-six years of age, an exile from Orieto, situated in the northern part of Spain, and has been exiled since 1876; he is wealthy, and has traveled and studied the customs, habits and languages of twenty-five different nations.

In a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, Ohio, the Count gives his endorsement to their great catarrh remedy, Peruna, in the following words:

The Canfield, Atlantic City, N. J.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio:

Gentlemen—"Last winter my secretary had a severe attack of la grippe which was cured effectually by the use of four bottles of Peruna, so when I contracted the same unpleasant sickness last fall I at once sent for a bottle. It truly worked wonders, and removed the sickening and sore feeling I had within a few days. I would not be without it now for any money, and when I go away I carry Peruna as a valuable requisite to my traveling outfit."—JULIAN SEGUNDO, CONDE DE OVIES.

LODGE NEWS

Masonic.

A regular communication of Center Lodge F. & A. M. was held last Friday at which the E. A. degree was conferred on two and the F. C. degree on two candidates.

Croton furnished her usual enthusiastic contingent, among them being the genial F. E. Hoover of Columbus. W. W. Stockberger of Center Star Lodge, Granville, was also a welcome visitor. Two new petitions were received. After the degree work the members partook of an elegant oyster supper which was followed by a very pleasant social session. Taking it all in all, it formed one of the most pleasing and enthusiastic meetings in the history of the lodge. Center Lodge by its enthusiasm has gained for itself an enviable reputation and is now having an influx of new members hardly equalled by many of the larger city lodges.

St. Luke's Commandery, No. 21, Knights Templar, held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening, when the orders of the Temple and Malta were conferred.

There will be a practice meeting of St. Luke's Commandery, No. 21 K. T., Kacy. Eight members responded to the roll call. The readings by Jeannette Moore and Mrs. Mattie Brooks were very interesting. Elegant refreshments were served. This being the New Year's meeting a beautiful source of considerable business was transacted. There will be a state convention of Warren Chapter, No. 6, R. A. M. on Monday evening, when there will be work in the Mark Master degree.

A stated communication of Acme Lodge, No. 554, F. & A. M., will be held on Thursday evening, when there will be work in the degree.

The Masonic candidates for the ensuing year have just been received by the Advocate office. The various bodies show a net increase in the membership as follows: Newark Lodge, No. 37, F. & A. M., 17; Acme Lodge, No. 554, F. & A. M., 8; Warren Chapter, No. 6, R. A. M., 10; Blosos Chapter, Independent Circle.

The Independent Circle met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Kacey. Eight members responded to the roll call. The readings by Jeannette Moore and Mrs. Mattie Brooks were very interesting. Nearly everybody is having la grippe again. It resembles somewhat in the beginning a severe cold. A chill or cold spell is followed by aching bones, sore throat, headache, cough, and general weakness. Its course may be quite slight or severe, but in either case it nearly always leaves one in a miserable condition.

Unless Peruna is taken it will be weeks or months before a person regains his usual health. If the victim is fortunate enough to begin the use of Peruna at the commencement of the attack the course of the grip is much shortened, and the system is left in a natural state.

People who have had la grippe, but are still suffering from the after-effects, should not neglect to take Peruna, as it will promptly restore them to health.

Henry Distin, the inventor and maker of all the hand instruments of the Henry Distin Manufacturing Co., writes the following from 1441 South Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa:

"I had a bad attack of la grippe last December which lasted more than three months, and which left me with catarrh, and several of my friends advised me to try Peruna."

I began with a bottle the first week in March and it certainly did me a great deal of good. I was so well satisfied that I purchased another bottle and followed the directions, and can say that it has cured me."—Henry Distin.

A large per cent of those who are afflicted with this epidemic, instead of getting well as they ought to, will have chronic catarrh as the result. This is almost invariably the case unless Peruna is taken as soon as possible after the grip begins.

Every one who has observed the effect of Peruna during the last three epidemics of la grippe positively knows that this remedy will cure it permanently.

The fact is, however, that a great multitude of people will not take Peruna, and a foundation for chronic catarrh will be laid.

Even in cases where chronic catarrh has affected the lungs, and the early stages of catarrhal consumption have been developed, Peruna can be relied upon as a prompt and lasting cure. La grippe and catarrh are at present the two great enemies of life in the land. Peruna is a cure for either.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Knights of St. John.

St. Francis Commandery, Knights of St. John, will hold an important meeting at the hall Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for the transaction of routine business, the election of officers for the ensuing year, and other important business. One special matter before the commandery will be to make necessary arrangements to attend the National convention of the order which will be held in Columbus in June, and which will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the organization of the K. of St. John. On that occasion there will be a large turn out in a grand parade and it will wind up with a sumptuous banquet. Representatives from all over the United States and Canada will attend this convention. Many prominent members will be present and several addresses will enliven the meeting. The commandery here has over fifty members of which number over thirty belong to the uniform rank. The president and secretary request all members to be present, and as the members of the commandery are alive to the best interests of the order, as is manifest by the large attendance of members at meetings recently held, there should be a full turn out at this meeting.

Dog Saved Family.

Additional news from the Lakeside Park hotel fire at Buckeye Lake says that it was a dog that saved John Glass and family from death in the fire which destroyed the hotel and all its contents. Mr. Glass was awakened by the dog's barking and had just time enough to get his family out of the hotel. The dog, a fine water spaniel, ran into the burning structure, presumably after the children, and lost its life.

The readers of a paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in the last 30 years—and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and it directly attacks the blood and cleanses the system. It is the only remedy for the cure of the disease, and gives the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO. A Hot Fight At Corinth

(Copyright, 1902, by G. L. Kilmer.)

T Corinth, Miss., Oct. 3 and 4, 1862, General Earl Van Dorn attempted to wrest the great prize of the valley from the grasp of Grant. The fall of Corinth into the hands of the Confederates would mean that Grant's victories at Fort Henry, Donelson and Shiloh early in the year had been in vain. Corinth at the time was the advance post of the Federals in the southwest. Grant was at Jackson, Tenn., and maintained a force of 12,000 at Bolivar, with another at Memphis under Sherman numbering 7,000. The garrison at Corinth mustered 23,000 and was commanded by Rosecrans. Van Dorn, having united his own army with that of Sterling
Price after the repulse of Price at Inka Sept. 20, had over 40,000 troops in the field, and he boldly considered striking Memphis, Bolivar or Corinth.

Grant was in doubt where Van Dorn would appear. A large Confederate army was across the border in Kentucky, and every Federal soldier that battle which Van Dorn sprung at daylight Oct. 4. After a short duel of artillery the Confederates ceased fighting. The division which had the most important part in heading the charge did not move, but about 8 o'clock the charging line marched out from the cover of the woods in splendid style.

Rosecrans' troops, lying down in front of the batteries, could see the southern flags and the glint of the sun upon the advancing bayonets. The first Federal line attacked was unfortunately placed, and the troops gave way. Rushing pell-mell, the Confederates were caught by the fire of Rosecrans' batteries. The force of the charge was broken by the shells, but some of the boldest Confederates dashed on into the Federal reserve artillery.

The bloodiest fighting of the day was at Battery Robinett, a little work holding three guns, with a ditch in front five feet deep. This battery was assaulted again and again until the dead Confederates lay piled in ranks before it. When the head of the column at

COLONEL ROGERS AT BATTERY ROBINETT.

mander of the Federal advance, General Jesse Reno, went forward to the picket line to examine the ground where his troops had halted and was shot dead by a sharpshooter.

At Crampton's pass the attack by the Federals was more exciting and more rapid. The mountain sides at that point rise abruptly from the plain.
Along the base of the mountain there runs a terraced road inclosed on the lower side by a stone wall. Behind the wall and hidden from view were masses of Confederate infantry and back on a bare crest one battery of artillery. It looked so easy to stand off Franklin's men that the defenders of the pass didn't take the trouble to guard the flanks. On both ends of the line of battle across the pass the mountain wall was so abrupt and stony that it could not be imagined an enemy would attempt to climb up in column.

The Federal skirmishers, two lines deep, deployed in front of the pass and rushed forward until they were inside the range of the muskets aimed at them from the stone wall. Two brigades of infantry followed the skim-ishers, and while the Confederates behind the wall turned their hottest fire upon them another brigade climbed up the steep hillside on the right flank, and before the daring movement was seen by the Confederates these agile soldiers opened fire in the rear of the line at the stone wall.

For an hour or so the fight raged along the terraced road and wall. Step by step the Confederates gave way and crowded into the narrow pass beyond the wall. A reserve Confederate brigade from beyond the mountain came up at double quick, plunging into the pass just as the men in front were falling back. At the same time the Federal brigade on the flank pushed forward through the woods parallel to the road through the pass and poured their fire into the retreating Confederates and the reserves who hopelessly tried to wedge their way to the front.
At last the two Federal brigades that had charged over the wall from the front pressed on to the narrow pass, and the Confederates broke into the woods on either side of the road, making their way into the valley in small detachments.

Night ended the fight at Crampton's pass, and Franklin's men followed the enemy down to the base of the mountain. At daylight, the 15th, the guns at Harpers Ferry began firing and could be heard in the opposing camps on the crest and western face of South mountain. At 8 o'clock the sound of battle ceased. Then Lee knew that Jackson had taken the fort, and Mc-Clellan knew that the fort had fallen.

AN OLD FAVORITE

MAN

By Edward Young

EDWARD YOUNG was born in Hampshire, England, in 1684 and died April 12, 1755. He was educated at Oxford, took holy orders in 1727 and became a royal chaplain in 1728. He is best remembered as the author of the didactic religious poem in blank verse entitled
"Night Thoughts," from which the following extract is taken. The poem, though no longer read in its entirety except by students of literature, has been a prominent source of quotations. It was once very popular.

HOW poor, how rich, how abject, how august,
How complicated, how wonderful, is man!
How passing wonder He who made him such!
Who centered in our make such strange extremes.
From different natures marvellously mixed,
Connection exquisite of distant worlds!
Distinguished link in being's endless chain!
Midway from nothing to the Deity!
A beam ethereal, sullied and absorb'd!
Though sullied and dishonored, still divine!
Dim miniature of greatness absolute!
An heir of glory! a frail child of dust!
Helpless immortal! insect infinite!
A worm! a god! I tremble at myself,
And in myself am lost. At home a stranger,
Thought wanders up and down, surprised, aghast,
And wondering at her own. How reason reels!
Oh, what a miracle to man is man!
Triumphantly distressed! What joy! What dread!
Alternately transported and alarmed!
What can preserve my life? or what destroy?
An angel's arm can't snatch me from the grave;
Legions of angels can't confine me there.

Succeeds the keen and frosty night,

And frost and shortening days portend
The aged year is near his end.

Then doth thy sweet and quiet eye

ERRONEOUS BELIEFS.

ODD NOTIONS ABOUT ANIMALS THAT ARE BORN OF IGNORANCE.

Some Superstitions About Toads and Snakes Explained—Nocturnal Animals and Their Eyes—Lambs
and Sheep and Their Tails.

It is commonly believed that toads cause warts. This is based upon the following combination of facts: Toads are the only common animals that are naturally covered with wartlike lumps.
They eject a clear liquid. This is supposed to do something. Warts appear mysteriously, and no one is able to explain the causes of their coming and going. It is erroneously inferred that they are produced by this wart bearing, nocturnal creature with peculiar habits, upon the basis of the doctrine that "like produces like." The common belief that tadpoles shed their tails has for its origin the facts that while living in water each possesses a swimming tail, but when it metamorphoses into a frog or a toad it becomes tailless. In fact, the tail does not drop off, but it is absorbed and disappears in the body, just as a swelling from a bump on the head disappears.
How often do we hear that frogs and toads have fallen with rain, and almost every July we may read accounts of such phenomena. These may have for their basis the fact that during the month of July toads change from the tadpole stage and aquatic habitat to the adult form and terrestrial habitat and then migrate landward in great numbers. They are active only at night or during hot weather, effectually concealing themselves in the most common places during the daytime.
However, when a rain falls at such a time they appear by thousands, as if by magic, and give the impression of having fallen with rain.

There are doubtless more superstitions concerning snakes than any other creatures. This arises in part from the traditions of the form of the original tempter and in part from the fact that but very few persons are willing to calmly observe serpents for themselves and learn the truth directly. We have met persons who believe that all snakes are venomous. This doubtless comes from the old Roman rule, "Ab uno disce omnes." How prevalent is the belief that horse hairs turn to snakes! There is no other foundation for this error than the resemblance of the so called hairsnake (gordius) to a common horsehair. Snakes are often supposed to charm birds, but the fact is that the feathered songsters are paralyzed by fright when they suddenly see the reptiles at close proximity.

The common erroneous belief that snakes sting or bite by means of their tongues may come from the Scriptural quotation, "It stingeth like an adder."
The supposition that snakes bite themselves and die is doubtless based upon the actions of certain species, like the hog nosed adder, which when teased will act as though dead and thus sometimes find protection. It is very commonly thought that snakes "live" or are active until sundown. This arises from the prolonged activity of the tail, due to the reflex action of the caudal nerve centers, which may continue for a longer or shorter period owing to temperature and other conditions. Many persons believe that there is a glass snake or joint snake, which may be broken to fragments when struck, but can rejoin itself and live. This may come from the fact that a certain lizard (Ophiostaurus ventralis) readily loses its tail, and while the body escapes the caudal member wiggles and attracts the attention of the pursuer.

The erroneous idea that turtles breathe under water, as do fishes, is derived from the observations of their having remained submerged for some hours. But this is made possible by their lung capacity, their limited need of oxygen compared with that of warm blooded animals and their ability to store oxygen in their tissues and use it as needed.

Both species of American cuckoos (genus coccyzus) build nests, contrary to the popular belief. The error comes from the fact that the European cuckoo (cuculus) builds no nests, but is parasitic, laying its eggs in the nests of other birds, as does our cowbird (molothrus). The old idea that "a sight of the triole cures jaundice" doubtless is connected with the yellow color of the bird and the homeopathic doctrine
"Similia similibus curantur" (like cures like).

Most persons believe that owls, cats and other nocturnal animals can see in absolute darkness. This error arises from the fact that in these animals the pupil of the eye is very large or dilatable, and in subdued or very feeble light they can see much better than can man. One can readily demonstrate the fallacy of the supposition by taking an owl or other nocturnal animal into a perfectly dark room, as we have done, and touching it with the hand.
It does not move, even though it be an unfamiliar animal. Cats and other nocturnal animals are erroneously thought to emit light from their eyes because when looking toward the light the crystalline lens of the eye projects a glaring reflection. The illusion that swans sing when dying and moan upon their eyes at the time of death are handed down from the writings of Pliny and represent ignorance of the facts of zoology.

We were once seriously asked by a teacher, "At what age do the little lambs' tails drop off?" He had accurately observed that the tails of the lambs are long, while those of the old sheep are short, and he had obtained a false idea, which is, however, prevalent. Of course he was shocked to learn that sheep's tails separate the tails to prevent the soiling of the wool.

A DESERT CARAVAN.

Its Start Across the Dry and Wanted of Sahara.

There were the last words, instructions, cautions, adieus, and then Abdullah held up his hand. All gave the cry of the camel driver, and the uncouth beasts, twisting and snarling under their loads, struggled to their feet.

Another cry, and they began their voyage. They traversed the square, passed the mosque, turned down a narrow street and in five minutes crossed the line that bounded the oasis and entered upon the desert.

Immediately the dun leader took his place at the left and slightly in advance.
The fourth on the right of the dun was the black racer. He carried two water skins and Abdullah's saddle. Then came in ranks fifteen camels, all riding in the center. On the right flank rode the two women, with enormous red and white cotton sunshades stretched behind them; then at an interval of six rods came fifteen camels unattended.
They simply followed the squad in front. The dun leader and the black racer had lanyards about their necks.
The other camels had no harness save the surcingles that held their loads.

In a panic, a sandstorm, a fusillade
from Bedouins, a mirage and a race for water, if Abdullah and Ali could grasp these lanyards the caravan was saved since the other camels followed the dun leader and the black racer as sheep follow the bellwether.

Abdullah walked at the left, abreast of the dun. At intervals he rode the black racer.

The pace of a caravan is two miles an hour, but Abdullah's, the two cripples included, could make two miles and a quarter. The black racer could make sixty miles a day for five days without drinking, but at the end of such a journey his hump would be no larger than a pin cushion, and his tem-

JAPANESE PROVERBS.

Some Really Fine Sayings Worthy of Universal Acceptance.

The Japanese do not expect to gather grapes from thorns or figs of thistles, but they phrase our thoughts somewhat differently. They say, "The spawn of frogs will become nothing but frogs."

We have a saying, "Despite not the day of small things." Their "Famous swords are made of iron scrapings" is much more picturesque.

The idea of our "All lay the load on the willing horse" they express by "Those who know the ropes do most of the hauling." While our commonplace "Out of evil good may come" finds with them a fine poetical expression in "The lotus springs from the mud" and in point of poignancy our "Adding insult to injury" is vastly inferior to their
"Rubbing salt on a sore."

The Japanese have some really fine sayings worthy of universal acceptance, such as "Thine own heart makes the world" or "The poet at home sees the entire universe" or "The throne of the god is on the brow of a righteous man."
Their nice observance of manners is evidenced by sayings such as "Excess of politeness becomes impoliteness," their national suspiciousness in the like of "Don't trust a pigeon to carry grain," and the handy man's abhorrence of a bungler finds expression in numerous quips such as "Learning to swim in a field" or "Scratching the foot with the shoe on."

Words Ending in "ator."

There never has been any general rule of pronunciation as to nouns ending in "ator." In Scotland the mode differed from the English rule in more usually throwing the accent back. Was it not Erskine who in his earlier days, having spoken of a curator, making the word a dactyl, was interrupted by the judge before whom he was pleading with,
"Curator, if you please, Mr.
Erskine, a Latin word with a long penult!"

"Thank you, my lord," was his ready reply, "for your correction. I bow to the authority of so distinguished a senator" and "orator" as your lordship."—London Spectator.

A Mighty Man.

Topham, the prince of English strong men, had knots of muscles where the armies are in the ordinary man. He could take a bar of iron 1 1/2 inches in diameter and 5 feet long, place the middle of it over the back of his neck and then force the ends forward until they met before his face. On one occasion he pulled upon a village blacksmith and made of him an everlasting chain by picking up a number of horseshoes and snapping them in two as easily as if they had been pine sticks.

A Smitten Conscience.

it."

THAT THROAT-TICKLING

It's first, the throat;
Then, the bronchial tubes;
Next, the lungs;
At last, Consumption.

There's nothing so bad for a cough as coughing!
There's nothing so good for a cough as—

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

The best time to take it is when the cold first comes on, when the trouble is in the throat.

Throat tickling, throat colds, throat coughs are all easily controlled with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Doctors first prescribed this nearly 60 years ago. They use it more today than ever. They know its ingredients. They understand how it heals congested membranes and overcomes inflammation. Ask your own doctor about using this medicine for colds, coughs, and all lung troubles.

J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

"I had a terrible cough last spring, and it took just one bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral to completely cure me. I have used this medicine in my family for many, many years."

YOUNGEST SOLDIER

Was Not William Taylor as Claimed at Marion, But Johnny Clem, the Drummer Boy, of Newark, Ohio.

Notice of the death of Wm. Taylor at Shamoken, Pa., which went over the wires recently with the statement that he had entered the army when twelve years, nine months and two days of age, and was probably the youngest soldier who served Uncle Sam in the civil war, develops the fact that he was not in it for youthful service with Johnny Clem, of this city. Newark takes particular pride in her reputation of having supplied the youngest and smallest recruit to the Union army, and in the person of Johnny Clem, sometimes called the "Drummer Boy of Shiloh," and sometimes the "Drummer Boy of Chickamauga."

He was probably the youngest person who ever bore arms in battle. His full name is John Winton Clem. He was born in Newark, August 13, 1851, and ran away from home when less than 10 years of age, and enlisted as a drummer boy in the army. He was in many battles and won singular distinction. His parents were French-Germans, his mother being a native of Alsace. His father was a market-gardener and huckster, and used to send Johnny, accompanied by his sister, Lizzie (now Mrs. John Adam), two years younger, from house to house, to sell vegetables. Johnny was a universal favorite with the people, being a bright, sprightly boy, and very small of his age—only 30 inches high.

On Sunday, May 24, 1861, he ran away from home and nothing was heard of him for several weeks, the family mourning him as dead, not even dreaming that he could be in the army, he was so very small, nothing but a child. It seems that he went up to Mt. Vernon and appeared at the house of Mrs. Dennis Cochrane, an old neighbor of the Clems, saying that his father had sent him there to peddle vegetables, which were to be sent up from Newark. None arriving Mrs. Cochrane surmised the truth, and at the end of the week, fearful that he would escape fastened him to a dog chain and put him in charge of a Newark railroad conductor to deliver to his home. On his arrival here he worked on the sympathies of the conductor to let him go free, saying that his father would whip him dreadfully if he was delivered to him. He then went to Columbus, where he enlisted as a drummer boy in the 24th Ohio. Finding an uncle in that organization he left and went as a drummer boy in the 22d Michigan. He was an expert drummer, and being a bright, merry child, soon made his way into the affections of the officers and soldiers. He was in many battles—at Shiloh, Perryville, Chattanooga, Chickamauga, Nashville, Kenesaw and others, in which the army of the Cumberland participated. At one time he was taken prisoner down in Georgia. When he was exchanged he came home for a week. He looked like a skeleton. He had been starved almost to death. He returned to the army and served on the staff of General Thomas until the close of the war. After that he studied at West Point, and could not regularly enter as a cadet on account of his diminutive size. General Grant, however, commissioned him as a Lieutenant. Now he is a Major in the regular army stationed in Texas. He married May 24, 1875, Annita, daughter of the late General William H. French, U. S. A. From this union were born six children, only one of whom is living. During the Spanish-American war Major Clem was stationed in Porto Rico, but some time ago he was transferred to the Department of Texas.

ROBT HORTON

Died Friday at Midnight After Three Week's Illness With Smallpox. Six Others Improving.

The first case of smallpox which terminated fatally in the city of Newark during the past 18 months was that of Robert Horton, a member of the Newark police force, who died at the smallpox hospital on Second street last about midnight Friday, after an illness of several weeks.

Mr. Horton was on duty until the night of December 11, when the disease manifested itself, and he was taken to the hospital soon afterward, where he was given the best of attention by William Sasser, the expert nurse in charge of the institution.

The deceased was an unmarried man about 35 years of age and a brother of ex-Sheriff George W. Horton, during whose office he served as jailer at the county jail. He was appointed on the city police force during Mayor Atherton's administration, and quickly took his place as one of the most efficient men on the force. He was a man of excellent judgment, thoroughly courageous and a man who reflected credit on the police department.

Mayor Fory, Marshal Vogelmeier, and Mr. Horton's fellow officers, feel deeply sorrowful at his sad death and the distressing circumstances which make it impossible to show the ordinary marks of honor and esteem at his obsequies.

The remains were interred Saturday. The six patients yet in the smallpox hospital are all improving and on the road to recovery.

Robert Horton will be buried in the St. Louisville cemetery, the consent for the interment having been secured from the Newton township trustees. The remains will be taken there tonight and laid to rest.

Mr. Horton's death was caused by confluent smallpox, next to the most fatal of the three kinds of smallpox. The deaths from this kind are 50 per cent, from direct about four per cent, and hemorrhoid is necessarily fatal in all cases.

The case now at the hospital and of the direct kind.

Rock-a-Bye Baby

These are sweet words, but how much pain and suffering they used to mean. It's different now. Since Mother's Friend has become known expectant mothers have been spared much of the anguish of childbirth. Mother's Friend is a liniment to be applied externally. It is rubbed thoroughly into the muscles of the abdomen. It gives elasticity and strength, and when the final great strain comes they respond quickly and easily without pain. Mother's Friend is never taken internally. Internal remedies at this time do more harm than good. If a woman is supplied with this splendid liniment she need never fear rising or swelling breasts, morning sickness, or any of the discomforts which usually accompany pregnancy. It's certainly great.

The proprietor of a large hotel in Tampa, Fla., writes: "My wife had an awful time with her first child. During her second pregnancy, Mother's Friend was used and the baby was born easily before the doctor arrived. It's certainly great."
